

S/S MARY ANNE

The S/S Mary Anne is arguably the most striking boat currently operating in the Galapagos. This historic ship is the only boat in the archipelago that can navigate using just the wind with the help of over 1000 square metres of sail hoisted high on three tall masts. Without the noise of a motor, dolphins and whales can often be seen alongside the ship as she elegantly glides through the waters. Due to her unique design, the Mary Anne is a stable ship and navigates smoothly. The various social areas on board include a spacious sun deck with ample seating and an alfresco dining area. Indoors there is a cosy bar, lounge with a TV and indoor dining room. The decoration throughout evokes a bygone era and the golden age of sail with beautiful wood paneling and antique style portholes. All the cabins are located on the bottom deck closest to the sea and although they are fairly small they all come with private bathrooms and air conditioning.

"This majestic and romantic ship is the only vessel in the Galapagos that can navigate by wind power alone."

FLIGHT TO BALTRA ISLAND IN THE GALAPAGOS TO START YOUR CRUISE

Transfer to the airport for a flight to Baltra Island. After arriving at Baltra airport, you will be greeted by our naturalist guide to then board the S/S Mary Anne and have lunch. After lunch, we will navigate a short distance to Black Turtle Cove, a large mangrove lagoon on the north coast of Santa Cruz Island.

Pelicans and herons roost on the branches, while marine dwellers such as green sea turtles or golden rays may cruise right next to the panga as it makes its way through the mangroves.

IMPORTANT NOTE: All Galapagos itineraries described are subject to weather conditions at the time and may be altered by the Captain whose decision is final.

 Meals Included: Lunch & Dinner.

OVERNIGHT

S/S MARY ANNE

With 1000 square metres of sail, the Mary Anne is a magnificent 216 ft, three masted Barquentine that is the only ship of its kind in the Galapagos.

GALAPAGOS

DARWIN BAY & EL BARRANCO

This morning travel to Genovesa Island and reach Darwin Bay (wet landing), a unique site with a beautiful beach, lined with red mangroves and soft-haired prickly pear cacti where red-footed boobies and great frigatebirds perch tamely.

At El Barranco (dry landing), we climb the edge of a cliff where frigatebirds, masked boobies, and red-footed boobies nest. The trail will take us to the inner part of the island, populated by holy stick trees and cacti. We will be seeking out the impressive red-billed tropicbird amidst Galapagos storm petrels and the endemic short-ear owl.

BARTOLOME ISLAND & CHINESE HAT

Dry landing at Bartolome to climb up the wooden steps and reach the summit of this spatter cone for a most breath-taking panorama of the island's well photographed Pinnacle Rock and views of neighbouring Santiago and many other central islands in the distance. Afterward, we will visit the white sand beach used as a nest site by sea turtles. Bartolome is also a good place to spot the Galapagos penguin.

Less than a quarter of one square kilometre in size, this island gets its name from being shaped like a Chinese hat. The hat shape is best appreciated from the north side. Lava formations can be seen on the western side of the island, formed under the sea and later raised upward, making it possible to observe coral heads on the lava. Be amazed by the landscapes covered by sea lions' colonies, marine iguanas, and Galapagos penguins.

 Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner.

RABIDA ISLAND & CERRO DRAGON

Wet landing onto Rabida's deep-red beaches to explore the red island's fascinating interior and saltwater lagoon, where flamingos are usually present. Darwin's finches, Galapagos mockingbirds, and yellow warblers feed off the vegetation. Given the right time of the year, we may see brown pelicans nesting on salt bushes that fringe the beach.

We head across to Cerro Dragon on Santa Cruz's northwest shore (dry landing) to visit a saltwater lagoon, home to Greater Flamingos, black-necked stilts, and white-cheeked pintails. Further inland we find a fantastic land iguana nesting site.

 Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner.

GALAPAGOS

SANTA CRUZ HIGHLANDS & DARWIN RESEARCH STATION

We will spend this day visiting Santa Cruz Island's most famous highlights. We will have a dry landing at the dock of Puerto Ayora to then board our transportation and head to the island's highlands. This area, in contrast to the coastal region, has lush vegetation and forest due to the humidity in the higher regions.

We will visit one of the ranches of the area where it is possible to see giant tortoises in their natural habitat. As these animals migrate from the coastal area to the highlands and back, the chosen ranch will depend on the presence of the tortoises since they roam free and change locations.

This is also a good place to see the ground finch of the Island, which populates these forests where is also possible to see the vermilion flycatcher or the yellow warbler.

We will return to the ship for lunch and to freshen up to then head back to Puerto Ayora for our second visit of the day, the Fausto Llerena Tortoise Breeding Center. Here, we will see tortoises from different islands. The animals are found in large semi natural pens for their protection, but also to ensure an easy view for the visitors. The pens are divided according to four different stages: eggs, neonates, juveniles (held here until they are mature enough to be "repatriated"), and adults. After this visit, we will have some time to browse the shops in the town of Puerto Ayora before boarding the ship, as this is the only opportunity we will have for souvenir shopping during the itinerary.

 Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner.

SOUTH PLAZA & SANTA FE ISLAND

Dry landing on one of the oldest docks of the archipelago on colourful South Plaza, home to vibrant green prickly pears, deep red Sesuvium, and coppery-orange land iguanas. Impressive seaward cliffs make the perfect perching spot for a variety of coastal birds. This is also a great place to observe the adult and pup sea lions swimming along the shores.

After a wet landing on Santa Fe, we will be encountered by a white beach where sea lions are usually resting. We will be looking for the endemic species of land iguana, larger and yellower than land iguanas on other islands. The largest prickly pear cacti in the Galapagos are also found here.

SUAREZ POINT, GARDNER BAY, GARDNER ISLET & OSBORN ISLET

In the morning we will head to Suarez Point, one of the most popular landing sites in Galapagos. The highlights include: sea lions near the landing place, sometimes to be seen body-surfing in the large breakers, large marine iguanas, with red-coloured males in the breeding season, oystercatchers, blue-footed and Nazca boobies, Galapagos hawks, Galapagos doves, swallow-tailed gulls, red-billed tropicbirds, and three species endemic to Española: the waved albatross (present only from April to December), the Española mockingbird, and the Española lava lizard. The trail ends in “El Soplador” a blowhole that sprays water some 25 m (75 feet) into the air.

We will spend the afternoon in the fantastic Gardner Bay (wet landing) of Española Island; an outstanding beach with sea lions, marine iguanas, and the intrepid Española mockingbird. Close to Española, there is a good spot for snorkelling called Gardner Islet. While snorkelling, there is a good chance playful sea lions will join you. Get ready for more snorkelling at Osborn islet, a great place to observe great quantities of marine life.

FLIGHT TO BALTRA & HIGHLANDS & FAUSTO LLERENA BREEDING CENTER

Transfer to the airport for a flight to Baltra Island. After arriving at Baltra airport, we will be greeted by an Angermeyer Cruises representative and then board a bus that will take us to the Highlands of Santa Cruz Island for our first visit in the Galapagos. The Highlands are lush and green in contrast to the arid coastal vegetation. The highland forests are dominated by the endemic Scalesia tree and are home to many bird species, including the short-ear owl. Here, we will have lunch at a local ranch while looking for the famous giant tortoises, which are in constant migration from the highlands to the coast. PUERTO EGAS, BUCANEER'S COVE & ESPUMILLA BEACH

At Puerto Egas (wet landing) we disembark on a dark sand volcanic beach with an interesting history of human settlement. Sleepy Galapagos fur seals lounge under arches of lava carved by the ocean and occasionally dip into the crystalline pools, also known as "grottos." Walk along the shore and observe the abundant marine life.

At Buccaneer Cove we will take a panga ride around the beautiful coastline. This place got its name because it used to be a refuge for British Buccaneers, which anchored here to collect supplies and clean their ships among other activities. The cove is very scenic with views of the cliffs and a dark beach. Do not forget to look for two unusual rock formations known as 'the monk' and 'elephant rock.'

We head to central Santiago to disembark at Espumilla (wet landing), onto a golden-coloured sand beach, used by green sea turtles as a nesting site. A forest trail will take us through some of the largest specimens of Palo Santo on the islands to observe yellow warblers, the amazing Galapagos flycatcher, and Darwin finches.
