YOUR GALAPAGOS CRUISE

The Isabela II is a mid-sized expedition yacht and one of the smaller vessels in its category providing an intimate and personalised experience for it's guests. The recently refurbished, sophisticated interiors feature dark wood furnishings and classic nautical decoration. There are several, spacious public areas including a salon bar, dining room, alfresco restaurant and an outdoor deck for sun bathing. The yacht is also equipped with a gym, jacuzzi, a natural history library and reading room, a computer room, a boutique gift shop, a glass bottom boat and sea kayaks. The cozy and well equipped cabins all come with air conditioning, private bathrooms and complimentary aluminium expedition water bottles. The Isabela crew has remained largely the same for many years and they are renown in the industry for their professionalism and service. Daily excursions are led by trained naturalist guides in small groups of 11-14 guests for the best possible experience.

"A classic expedition yacht with a homely and traditional feel and all the facilities of a larger vessel."

INTRODUCTION

Our journey begins in Santa Cruz Island, where we'll get to meet one of the most fascinating inhabitants of the Galapagos archipelago: Giant Tortoises. After landing at Baltra airport, we will soon be face to face with these creatures in their natural habitat.

The next day takes us to Santiago Island, where we'll get the chance to snorkel alongside marine iguanas. During the afternoon, we'll visit the sandy beach of Sombrero Chino (Chinese Hat Islet).

The next day, we head off to Genovesa Island, a fascinating bird hub! Here, we'll spend the entire day enjoying its colonies of nesting birds and explore its cliffs, shoreline, and beaches. Returning to the central islands, Santa Fe offers you the chance to meet its endemic Land Iguana. During the afternoon, we can hope to observe sea lions, rays, and sharks in South Plaza's turquoise waters.

GALAPAGOS

BALTRA AIRPORT & SANTA CRUZ ISLAND'S HIGHLANDS & PUERTO AYORA

After landing at Baltra Airport, we drive to the Itabaca Channel to take a ferry across to Santa Cruz Island. A 30-minute bus ride takes us up to the fascinating, more humid Highlands of the island where we'll learn about its unique ecosystems and biodiversity. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant.

After lunch, we drive to a nearby reserve that is one of the best places in the archipelago to see giant tortoises in their natural habitat. The tortoises are easy to spot, lumbering around, munching on grass and leaves, and wallowing in small pools. There are several lava tunnels to explore in the reserve, too. A short bus ride takes us down to Puerto Ayora to board the Isabela II.

IMPORTANT NOTE: All Galapagos itineraries described are subject to weather conditions at the time and may be altered by the Captain whose decision is final.

TIP: Please dress with comfortable shoes and clothes, bring a small backpack with any medicine you might be taken, sunblock, insect repellent, and anything you need during the excursion. You'll go onboard Yacht Isabela II at the end of the day.

 Meals Included: Lunch & Dinner.

GALAPAGOS

PUERTO EGAS (SANTIAGO ISLAND) & CHINESE HAT ISLET

Following a wet landing on the black, sandy beach, our trail takes us to enjoy close-up encounters with recently reintroduced land iguanas, plus land and marine birds amid a landscape of tuff-stone layers, jagged rocks, and lava flows. At low tide, marine iguanas graze upon the algae beds. We can also observe a colony of fur seals, usually dozing in the shade of some rocks.

This islet, formed only relatively recently, makes a wonderful afternoon visit as we explore the wildlife along its 1,312 ft long (400 m long) trail, which begins at a crescent-shaped, white sandy beach. The cove offers excellent swimming and snorkelling opportunities amid white-tipped reef sharks and Galapagos penguins.

 Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner.

DAY 3 - WEDNESDAY

DATE TBC

PRINCE PHILIP'S STEPS & DARWIN BAY (GENOVESA ISLAND)

The day kicks off with a panga ride along the cliffs of "Bird Island" as Genovesa is affectionately nicknamed, followed by a landing at a steep staircase that connects us with a flat plateau. From here, the trail winds its way through large colonies of Nazca boobies, red-footed boobies, great frigatebirds, and storm petrels. With luck, we'll be able to spot the short-eared owl. Those who do not wish to disembark can enjoy a longer panga (inflatable dinghy) ride along the cliffs, weather conditions permitting. Snorkelling and kayaking activities are available.

We land after lunch at the beautiful white beach of Darwin Bay. Here we walk amid literally hundreds of birds, most of which are frigatebirds, red-footed and Nazca boobies, as well as gulls, herons, finches, and mockingbirds.

 Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner.

SANTA FE ISLAND & SOUTH PLAZA ISLAND

We take the dinghy over to this idyllic sandy-white beach populated by colonies of sea lions. Galapagos hawks are often easily observed, perched atop salt bushes. The Santa Fe land iguana may be spotted during our exploration. Following the walk, we can snorkel and swim along a natural wave barrier or ride the glass-bottom boat.

Following lunch and a rest, we disembark (dry landing) in this channel, whose turquoise waters contrast brilliantly with the white sand and black lava of the shoreline. Beyond, a carpet of scarlet sesuvium succulents serves as a ground cover for a grove of luminescent green prickly-pear cactus. Yellow-grey land iguanas sit beneath these, waiting patiently for pears to drop. Along the coastline we find sea lion colonies, while frigates, swallow-tailed gulls, and shearwaters glide, playing with the thermals.

 Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner.

INTRODUCTION

Our journey begins on Santa Cruz Island as we explore the lush vegetation of its highlands before venturing down to the world-famous Charles Darwin Research Station.

The next day, we'll enjoy the panoramic views from Bartolome Island before exploring the white coral sand beach of Sullivan Bay, venturing through its dramatic lava field.

The next morning takes us to Dragon Hill, home of dusty-yellow land iguanas! After this adventure, we head out to discover Punta Vicente Roca's wildlife. Later, we'll make our way to the youngest island in the archipelago, Fernandina, widely regarded as one of the most pristine environments on the planet.

BALTRA AIRPORT (SANTA CRUZ ISLAND) & PUERTO AYORA & THE CHARLES DARWIN RESEARCH STATION

Baltra Airport (Santa Cruz Island) & Puerto Ayora and the Charles Darwin Research Station.

After landing at Baltra Airport, we drive to the Itabaca Channel to take a ferry across to Santa Cruz Island. A 30-minute bus ride takes us to a restaurant in the fascinating, more humid Highlands of the island to enjoy lunch, and then continue south down to Puerto Ayora on the coast.

At the eastern end of Puerto Ayora, the largest town in the archipelago, we visit the Charles Darwin Research Station and the Giant Tortoise Breeding Center, the islands' headquarters for scientific research and conservation. Later in the afternoon, we stroll along the main street of Puerto Ayora before embarking. Captain's welcome cocktail and dinner.

IMPORTANT NOTE: All Galapagos itineraries described are subject to weather conditions at the time and may be altered by the Captain whose decision is final.

BARTOLOME ISLAND & SULLIVAN BAY (SANTIAGO ISLAND)

This morning, a Galapagos icon awaits Bartolome Island. A great way to start the day, with a steep climb up a wooden staircase: the panoramic view from the top is well worth the effort! Following the walk, we take a panga ride around colossal Pinnacle Rock in search of Galapagos penguins and other wildlife.

After lunch, we board the pangas (inflatable dinghies) and land at Sullivan Bay on the east coast of Santiago, a white coral sand beach that is ideal for swimming. A trail runs along a lava field that flowed here around 100 years ago. This is the perfect place to see and understand the volcanic origin of the Galapagos.

DRAGON HILL (SANTA CRUZ ISLAND) & BUCCANEER COVE (SANTIAGO ISLAND)

The north coast of Santa Cruz hosts the fascinating landscapes of Dragon Hill. After disembarking, the first part of our walk passes a brackish-water lagoon frequented by shorebirds, ducks, and American flamingos. Further inland, the trail offers a beautiful view of the bay and the western islands of the archipelago, as well as the chance of observing land iguanas (for which the visitor site is named, following a concerted effort to conserve them by the Galapagos National Park). After our walk, we can snorkel from the shore, hoping to spot rays, green turtles, and sharks.

After lunch, we explore the coastline along the impressive cliffs of Buccaneer Cove, learning about the area's distant and recent history. The cove is home to a large number of marine birds, sea lions, and inter-tidal organisms. Enjoy fantastic natural formations such as the "Elephant Rock", "The Bishop" and an impressive natural cave. Opportunities for snorkelling and a ride on the panga or glass-bottom boat are available.

PUNTA VICENTE ROCA (ISABELA ISLAND) & PUNTA ESPINOZA (FERNANDINA ISLAND)

Since there is no landing site at this location, we explore the captivating coast by dinghy, seeking out abundant wildlife including colonies of Galapagos fur seals, the nesting sites of Nazca boobies, not to mention flightless cormorants, penguins, and marine iguanas. Depending on the conditions of the ocean, we'll be able to snorkel along the cliffs, hopefully in the company of green sea turtles. Back on board, we navigate along the Bolivar Channel, where nutrient-rich upwellings provide fertile fishing grounds for cetaceans.

We end our journey on a high note by visiting the island of Fernandina, the youngest island of the archipelago, and arguably one of the most pristine ecosystems on the planet. Our visitor site of Punta Espinoza boasts a fantastic combination of apparently barren landscapes and abundant wildlife, all dominated by the lofty volcano at the heart of the island. Highlights to spot include hawks, penguins, vast numbers of marine iguanas, and the famous flightless cormorant, with its beguiling blue eyes.

INTRODUCTION

Our journey through Galapagos' Southeastern Islands will be teeming with magnificent islands and endemic wildlife! During our first day, we'll encounter giant tortoises at Cerro Colorado. After that, a fascinating array of different booby species wait for us at Punta Pitt.

During the third day of our Galapagos expedition, a visit to Española Island will put us face to face with magnificent wildlife, from mockingbirds to colorful marine iguanas!

On the fourth day, we'll wake up in Floreana Island, where historic Post Office Bay and Cormorant Point's green beach await. After this, we sail all the way to the west, where we'll get to walk across young lava formations at Punta Moreno and explore the fascinating mangroves of southern Fernandina.

Our Galapagos adventure concludes with a morning visit to Eden Islet and a high note: an afternoon wander across beautiful North Seymour Island.

BALTRA AIRPORT & LAS BACHAS (SANTA CRUZ ISLAND)

We land at Baltra Island by plane in the morning and transfer to the nearby dock to board Yacht Isabela II, where we receive a welcome introductory briefing, boat drill, and lunch.

This beautiful visitor site is located on the north shore of Santa Cruz Island, a glorious white beach with a couple of brackish lagoons only a few steps away from the sea. These lagoons are the feeding grounds of various wading birds, from stilts to flamingos. You may enjoy swimming at this beach, too. Back on the ship, we will settle in with a welcome cocktail, a briefing on the next day's expedition plan, and a delicious dinner.

IMPORTANT NOTE: All Galapagos itineraries described are subject to weather conditions at the time and may be altered by the Captain whose decision is final.

PUNTA PITT & CERRO COLORADO (SAN CRISTOBAL ISLAND)

We land on the eastern tip of the island. The trail that ascends from the beach provides spectacular views of the shoreline and is the only site in the Galapagos where the 3 species of boobies can be found together, as well as the two frigatebird species, plus a colony of bachelor sea lions. If conditions are favourable, there is a chance to swim, kayak, or snorkel from the beach or take an inflatable dinghy ride.

We disembark at Puerto Baquerizo Moreno and drive 40 minutes to the island's southern shore. At Cerro Colorado, we visit the breeding centre for highly endangered giant tortoises amid a fantastic deciduous forest, home to dozens of bird species, including the San Cristobal mockingbird, as well as the endemic San Cristobal lava lizard.

Following lunch on board, our afternoon outing at Punta Suarez takes us on an exciting trail across lava/boulder terrain. Along the way, we can enjoy unique sea bird colonies, including the beautiful waved albatrosses, boobies, swallow-tail gulls, and the famous "blowhole". This island is also renowned for its colourful and sizeable marine iguanas. All in all, a wonderful visit.

PUNTA MORENO (ISABELA ISLAND) & PUNTA MANGLE (FERNANDINA ISLAND)

In the morning, following a meander through the mangroves in search of sea turtles, we disembark amid a landscape dominated by the giant volcanoes of southern Isabela Island, some still active. The rugged trail loops inland from the coast, giving us plenty of opportunity to enjoy unique lava formations, pioneer lava cactus, and exotic scalesia trees, as well as plenty of wildlife: Galapagos penguins, flightless cormorants, brown pelicans, herons, sea lions, marine iguanas, and dozens of Sally Lightfoot crabs. The inland lagoons are home to Bahama-pintail ducks, common stilts, Galapagos flamingos, and even Galapagos hawks and mockingbirds. Following our walk, we can take to our glass-bottom boats or deep-water snorkel.

In the afternoon, we'll explore Fernandina's coastline aboard our pangas (inflatable dinghies). The archipelago's youngest ecosystem is home to small Galapagos penguins and green-eyed flightless cormorants that rest on the shore's black rocks. Beneath the waves, rays and sea turtles might glide by. The nutrient-rich waters of the Bolivar Channel, which separates Fernandina and Isabela islands, attract dolphins and whales. With luck, we'll be able to spot them. Depending on sea conditions, we end our visit with a glass-bottom boat ride or deep-water snorkel.

We have saved one of the best visitor sites in the archipelago for last. In the afternoon, we disembark for a walk along the coast and the interior of this beautiful flat island. We'll be able to see numerous nesting frigatebirds as well as land iguanas and sea lion colonies along the coastline. We can explore the coast by dinghy, too, seeking out fur seals, and enjoying a fun, deep-water snorkel. Evening briefing, farewell cocktail, and dinner.
