HIKE FROM PUMAMARCA TO OLLANTAYTAMBO & PACHAMANCA LUNCH

Today you will have a roughly 3 hour downhill hike on roads that few other tourists will visit. Start with a drive to the ruins of Pumamarca, about half an hour above Ollantaytambo. From here your guide will lead you down steep terraces on an old Inca road to Ollantaytambo. Depending on the time of year you may pass locals plowing the fields with oxen or others walking to town in their colourful traditional dress.

When at Ollantaytambo you will explore the narrow cobbled streets of this Inca town with its original Inca walls. For lunch you will be treated to a traditional Pachamanca on an organic farm.

A Pachamanca is a traditional way of preparing food in the Andes. An oven is built out of stones, the stones are heated with a wood fire and brought to a very high temperature. The meat and vegetables are then carefully covered with the stones. Enjoy your meal under a thatch roof with views of mount Pinkulluna and the Veronica glacier. Wash your meal down with a digestif of traditional Matacuy, made at the on site distillery. Hiking for 3 hours, 6km, downhill.

Take a trip to an artisan market, visit a colonial church, relax in a cafe overlooking the main square or visit a chocolate museum. There are plenty of things to do in the fascinating city of Cusco! Please let us know if you would like us to arrange an additional activity for today.

Cusco is a city that has been continuously inhabited since pre-colonial times and therefore comes with more than a large dose of history. Once the capital of the Inca empire, Cusco was one of the most important cities in the region. The eclectic architecture ranges from grandiose baroque churches and ornate cathedrals to Inca temples and centuries old carvings. Today llamas, tourists and locals jostle along Cusco's tiny streets yet the city still retains it's mystical atmosphere. Gateway to Machu Picchu and the Sacred Valley, Cusco is one of the continent's great cities.

THE CONQUEST OF THE INCAS

JOHN HEMMING

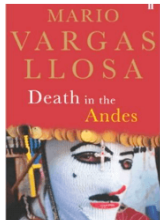

One of the most classic books on Peruvian history, this is Hemming's account of how Pizarro, the Spanish conquistador conquered Peru in the 1530's. At 640 pages it is a long but eminently readable book. An essential read for history buffs!

LOST CITY OF THE INCAS

HIRAM BINGHAM

Originally published in the 1950's this is the travelogue by the Yale historian who discovered the "lost city" otherwise known as Machu Picchu in 1911. A fascinating account of the discovery of one of the world's great archeological sites.

DEATH IN THE ANDES

MARIO VARGAS LLOSA

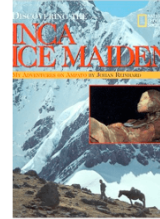

Mario Vargas Llosa is often described as one of Peru's and Latin America's greatest novelists. This book is part detective novel, part political allegory. By exploring history, culture and local customs, Llosa offers us an insight into Peruvian society. A classic page turner!

RED APRIL

ANTIAGO RONCAGLIOLO, EDITH GROSSMAN (TRANSLATOR)

Another chilling political thriller set in the town of Ayacucho in the lead up to Easter. Roncagliolo uses the fictional story to excavate the darker side of his country's culture and politics. Complicated in parts but still a rewarding read.

DISCOVERING THE INCA ICE MAIDEN

JOHAN REINHARD

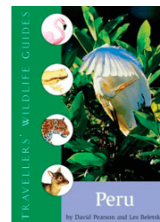

A short account of Johan Reinhard's 1995 discovery of a 500 year old frozen mummy of a young Inca girl whilst he was climbing the Ampato volcano. This important discovery can be seen today in Arequipa. The book includes excellent colour photographs.

THE BLUE HOUR

ALONSO CUETO

Cueto is one of Peru's most acclaimed contemporary writers. This book from 2013 won a handful of prestigious literary awards and was translated into English. Set around the time of the war against the Shining Path Guerrillas in Peru, it is a thought provoking but sometimes difficult read.

PERU: THE TRAVELER'S WILDLIFE GUIDE

DAVID PEARSON

A useful handbook and survey of Peru's flora and fauna including many illustrations for identification purposes. The biologist author also includes notes on conservation, habitats, national parks and reserves.

THE MOTORCYCLE DIARIES

ERNESTO CHE GUEVARA

One of the most famous pieces of Latin American literature, this is the journal kept by Che Guevara as he set out from his home in Buenos Aires to travel the continent. Much of the story is set in Peru. A touching and romantic tale of youth, travel and discovery. If there is one book you read, make it this one!

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION, TIPS & FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW FAR IN ADVANCE DO I NEED TO BOOK?

A trip to Latin America can be quite a complex one with definite peak seasons when tickets and good hotel rooms can become scarce so we recommend booking as far in advance as possible with bookings a year in advance common.

CAN YOU OBTAIN VISAS FOR US?

Most countries do not need a visa for our clients but if you do we can advise and recommend a visa agent.

IS IT SAFE TO BOOK WITH YOU?

In a word, Yes! We members of ABTA and ATOL Bonded so any payments made to us are fully protected in the unlikely event of our financial failure. Our ABTA membership number is Y1699 and our ATOL license number is 10287.

IS LATIN AMERICAN TRAVEL SAFE?

We believe so and in recent years we hear of very few problems and there is no reason why you should not feel as safe travelling in all the areas we operate tours. This applies to men or women traveling alone and exercising reasonable common sense.

WHAT HAPPENS ONCE WE MAKE A BOOKING?

On taking a booking we will confirm as many of the services as can be at that point and then ask you for a non-refundable deposit of 20% per person plus any international flights we are booking with the final balance payment due 60 days before your trip start date with us. 1 month before your trip with us starts we will send you our exclusive Trip Guidebook tailored to your specific trip with us.

CAN YOU BOOK INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS ?

Yes, as we hold an ATOL license (number 10287) we are permitted by the Civil Aviation Authority in the UK to book flights on behalf of our clients. We are a British Airways preferred operator but also book with other airlines to get the best deals and routes for our clients.

WHY SHOULD WE BOOK A TRIP WITH YOU

We took our first Latin America trip in the 1990s and between us have taken many trips since. We have been to all destinations we offer, often many times, and are passionate about sharing our knowledge and providing you with the best possible travel experience of these destinations which we love to visit ourselves. Add to this the back up we offer from financial protection of your payments to us to the 24 hour emergency numbers we give you before your trip and we think we are the full package for quality, service and reliability.

DO YOU CATER FOR ALL DIETS?

As long as we are informed at the time of making your booking we can cater for almost all dietary requirements.
